

NASSCOM - Interview with Sam Santhosh

20 Oct, 2008

Sam Santhosh is the CEO and Managing Director of Calsoft; the company he founded in 1992. Focused on leading Calsoft to achieve improved growth in revenue and profitability; Sam oversaw the growth of Calsoft in all key areas – Finance, Strategy and Customer acquisition. Calsoft went public in the year 1996 and today employs over 1000 people in 12 global locations.

Under Sam's vision Calsoft metamorphosed from a niche player in the Silicon Valley to a global player providing a range of service offerings. Over the years Sam has led the company to grow both organically as well as through acquisitions and strategic partnerships with global leaders. From the year 2004 to date Sam has directly overseen the acquisition of 5 companies. He has been instrumental in positioning and integrating the acquired companies and their services under the Calsoft group umbrella, thereby resulting in positive synergies.
